Parkside Elementary joins in United Way “Day of Caring” service project

11 September 2013, Murray, UT – Tomorrow, Thursday, September 12, 2013, sixth grade students at Parkside Elementary School will join with other volunteers for United Way’s Day of Caring. They will be working with the Big Brother/Big Sister Organization and the Orriant Company to paint curbs in Murray Park, Murray, Utah from 1:00 to 3:00 PM in the afternoon.

Each student will be paired up with an adult, in order to be able to work under more direction. Students will walk over to the park from Parkside Elementary School, which is located at 5175 South 496 East in Murray.

For more information, contact Cherran Zullo at Parkside Elementary School; phone 801-264-7434; email czullo@murrayschools.org. Or, contact Principal Colleen Smith at the school, same phone number.

Under the direction of the Murray Board of Education, the mission of the Murray School District is to work in partnership with the community in the education of youth in a changing society. Dr. Steven Hirase is superintendent and chief executive officer of the Murray School District; Marjorie Tuckett is president of the Murray Board of Education.
