RESCHEDULED – ANNUAL SERVICE DAY AT MURRAY HIGH – RESCHEDULED

Murray High Student will join together to provide service to others.

March 17, 2010, Murray, UT – Murray High School's 5th Annual TEAM Service Day has been RESCHEDULED for tomorrow, Tuesday, April 27, from 9:10 a.m. to around 10:30 a.m., due to the inclement weather of last week when it was previously scheduled. During the morning block of time, all 1500 high school students will engage in service projects that will benefit the local community as well as many people abroad. This year, each TEAM class designed and planned their own project depending on the interests of its students.

Some of the projects that students and community volunteers will be working on include:

- making Care Packages for the military
- helping Mayor Snarr landscape a stretch of road along of 53rd South in Murray
- tutoring students at Parkside Elementary School in Murray
- preparing English language materials for an orphanage in Uganda
- creating Care Packages for the Murray Humane Society
- cleaning donated stuffed animals to give to local shelters
- painting picnic tables at in the Courtyard at Murray High School
- creating medical kits for Haiti
